

SOCIETY

EASTER week, which always marks the beginning of the gay social season of the spring in Richmond, is over, and the school girls who have been spending the holidays here have hurried back to the duties that await them, while many other visiting girls still linger here, insisting that they are having "the time of their lives." Certainly the week just past could not have been characterized by more delightful affairs, Germans, informal hops, receptions and little dinner parties, each filling its own place in the calendar of each day.

On Monday night there were the two charming dances, the German at the Masonic Temple, led by Sator Blackiston with Miss Frances Minze, of Gunston Hall, who was the guest of Miss Richardson for the Easter holidays, being one of the prettiest affairs of the winter. The Junior German Club is to be congratulated upon its success. The informal hop at the Hermitage Golf Club that night was very attractive, as was the dance there the next night when Randolph Harrison entertained a number of his friends.

On Tuesday afternoon at 6 o'clock the marriage of Miss Anna Deane Carr and Howard Gilman Davis was celebrated in her mother's residence, 314 North Harrison Street, and on Wednesday weddings seemed to be the order of the day. The Brown-Archer wedding was celebrated in Grace Episcopal Church at 11 A. M., and at 6 P. M. Miss Sallie Meredith Bigger and Russell Edley Norvell were married in Monumental Church.

The wedding of Miss Minna Straus Thalhimer and Sylvain R. Livingston took place in the residence of the bride's parents, 1341 Monument Avenue, at 7 o'clock the same evening, and at 9 o'clock the wedding of Miss Nancy Garland Waddill to Menelaus Lankford was celebrated in her home, the ceremony being followed by a beautiful reception at half-past 9.

In the Thalhimer home also a reception was held to the wedding guests, and the bridal party of the Norvell-Bigger wedding was entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Bigger, on West Grace Street.

On both Wednesday and Thursday nights brilliant audiences attended the Wednesday Club concert, which proved such a musical and social success.

Mrs. John Landstreet was hostess at a large tea given in her residence on Park Avenue Thursday afternoon, when Miss Edith O'Keefe and Mrs. Robert Williamson received with her at a tea.

Miss Langhorne's Wedding. There is the greatest interest in Richmond and throughout Virginia in Miss Nora Langhorne's wedding to Paul Phillips, which is to be celebrated April 26, in Saint James Church, New York City. Miss Ella Buck, of Richmond, is to be one of the bridesmaids, Miss Julia Bladde, of Philadelphia, Miss Katharine Atterbury, Miss Nathalie Howland, Miss Gertrude Sheldon, of New York, and Miss Rachel Phillips, of England, having been invited. Their costumes will harmonize with the pink and white color scheme in all decorations. Miss Langhorne will have two little maids of honor in English fashion—Nancy Perkins, of Richmond, and Irene Gibson, of New York, her nieces.

Mr. Phillips has chosen Angus McDonnell for his best man, and the ushers will be Alexander Butler Duncan, Charles Dana Gibson, Reginald Brooks, Charles Draper, Lee Phillips, of Washington, and William Langhorne, the bride's brother well known in Richmond.

Following the ceremony, which will be performed by Bishop Courtney, there will be a reception in the home of Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, in East Seventy-third Street.

Miss Langhorne, Mr. Phillips, Reginald Brooks and Mrs. Moncur

Perkins are up at Mirador now, but will leave to-morrow for New York. Mrs. Perkins coming back to Richmond for a few days.

Miss Ella Buck and her mother, who have been at Rose Hill for some time, will also reach Richmond to-morrow, leaving on Tuesday for New York City to remain until the wedding.

Women's Club. On Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock Dr. Henry Olds, of Washington, will give a talk before the Woman's Club on "Bird Notes." Dr. Olds is connected with the Biological Survey, Agricultural Department, in Washington, and is considered an unusually interesting speaker. He illustrates his talk by imitating the various bird notes with piano accompaniment. While in Richmond Dr. Olds will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Moses D. Hoge.

On Tuesday afternoon also at 5 o'clock a most attractive musical will be given, in which Miss Roberta Z. Allen, formerly of Richmond, but now of Washington, will take a prominent part. Miss Allen's delightful violin playing is too well remembered here to need any comment.

On Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock Miss Jane M. Rutherford will give a paper on "The French Republic and the Coup d'Etat of Louis Napoleon" before the history class, and on Friday evening at 8:30 the April tournament will be played with compass whilst as the game, the usual rules with regard to partners and notifying the house committee applying on this occasion.

In Honor of Mrs. Halsey. Invitations have been issued for a bridge party to be given by Mrs. William I. Clifton next Friday, in honor of Mrs. Don P. Halsey, of Lynchburg, who will be her house guest.

The scheme of decoration will be red and green, prettily carried out in the tally cards and refreshments.

Young girls assisting Mrs. Clifton will be Miss Lucy Nelson Vaden, Miss Louise Carter Walke, Miss Elsie Ingram, Miss Alice Leigh Penick, Miss Bessie Taylor, of Accomac, and Miss Wilkinson, of Chesterfield county.

Attractive Dances. Three very charming dances have been arranged for Friday, April 23, when Misses Ella and Lillian Binford will hold the commencement of their classes in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel.

Dancing from 5:30 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon will be the youngest class in their exquisite fancy dances, an Indian dance, the minuet and the Spanish dance with tambourines, all of the little children being in full costume. Those taking part in these will be Misses Virginia and Eleanor Fry, Ellen Wallace, Betsy Binford, Mary Munford, Martha Hoadley, Mary Lefebvre, Gilbert Luce, Katherine Vaughn, Helen George, Bland Cox, Katharine Miller, John Grey, Emma Adams, James Parkinson, Nell Reynolds, Ann and Mary Hawes, Louise Branch, Ellinor Parrish, Isabelle Cameron, Sally Cameron, Ruth Gordon, Sue Briggs, Hiram Gates and others.

Chaperoning the girls and boys, who will dance from 6 to 8, will be Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Landon Cabell, Mr. and Mrs. A. Boine, Blair, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Armistead Wellford, Mr. and Mrs. Moncur Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Lefew and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Bowe, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pegram, Mr. and Mrs. Stafford Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitehurst, Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. John Cole, Jr., and several others will be chaperones for the older class, at their dance to be held from 8 until half-past 10.

Juvenile society is looking forward with eager anticipation to these dances on Friday, which will prove a red-letter day in their social life.

For Bride-Elks. Several beautiful ante-nuptial entertainments were given during the week in honor of Miss Fannie Royster, whose marriage to Richard Cooke was the social event of Thursday in Norfolk society.

At a luncheon given for her by Mrs. E. T. Lamb, bride roses and asparagus ferns formed the centerpiece, the candles were white, shaded in green, and hand-painted place cards were used. Guests at the luncheon were Misses Fannie and Mary Royster, Alice Kelly, Kate Cooke, Thelma Scherer, of Chester, Pa.; Margaret Boylan, of Raleigh, N. C.; and Nan Freeman.

The bridal party was again entertained by Miss Alice Kelly on Wednesday. Many other enjoyable little affairs were given for them.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. White, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Strudwick and Miss Elise Parkinson returned yesterday from Norfolk, where they were Miss Royster's wedding guests.

Miss Nan Freeman, one of Miss Royster's bridesmaids, entertained on Wednesday afternoon for her at a beautiful tea from 5 to 6 at her home in Stockley Gardens, other members of the bridal party receiving with Miss Freeman.

Memorial Services To-Day. Members of the Independent Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will attend the memorial services held to-day in Calvary Baptist Church, in memory of Dr. John William Jones.

A committee, including Mrs. J. H. Ingle, Mrs. George Kolner, Mrs. Maria Robinson, Mrs. Thomas Roese, Mrs. D. T. Williams, Mrs. Hampton Fleming, Mrs. B. A. Blenner, Mrs. Alice M. Tyler and Mrs. Randolph, was appointed to be present.

Guests at Riverside. Mrs. Evan R. Chesterman and her house guests, Mrs. William H. Horton, of Roanoke, and Miss Julia Bullard, of East Radford, went over to the Riverside reception held in the Petersburg Country Club yesterday, and notwithstanding the fact that the hunting season will soon be over, the guests that greeted the M. T. H. last Saturday afternoon were most enthusiastic over the run.

The hounds were thrown in at Mattox's for a stiff run through his pasture at the start and after a most exciting run finished in good form at the kennels.

Those finishing up well with the hounds were: M. C. Jackson, M. F. H. on Black Sox; S. M. Green, Jr., on Hunter Rye; Harvey Seward, whip, on Christmas; and Irving Hartley, on that speedy steed, Bessie Kiser.

The usual dance and reception was much enjoyed after the hunt and quite a number of visiting girls were guests of the club for the afternoon.

Miss Lucille Meredith Massey, of this city, who is attending school at Gunston Hall, and her house guests, Misses Polk and Ballinger, of Texas, and William Hoppe, of this city, were among the guests.

Krug-Lucas. Mrs. Evan R. Chesterman, of New York City, announces the marriage of his daughter, Marian Irene, to David J. Krug, of this city. Mr. Krug is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Krug, of 922 West Marshall Street, and his many friends will be interested to know of his wedding on Thursday last, the ceremony being celebrated at 5:30 o'clock in Saint Patrick's Cathedral, on Fifth Avenue.

Have You Tried?

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? We can furnish positive proof that it has made many remarkable cures after all other means had failed.

Women who are suffering with some form of female illness should consider this.

As such evidence read these two unsolicited testimonial letters. We guarantee they are genuine and honest statements of facts.

Gardiner, Maine.—"I was a great sufferer from a female disease and weakness. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation but I could not bear to think of it. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me in three months."—Mrs. S. A. Williams, R.F.D. No. 14, Box 39, Gardiner, Me.

So, West Harbor, Me.—"I suffered for years with painful periods, backache, headache, nervousness, irregularities and inflammation. I consulted two physicians and one advised me to have an operation.

"I was completely discouraged when I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has made me a well woman. I advise all suffering women to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Lillian Robbins, South West Harbor, Me.

Evidence like the above is abundant showing that the derangements of the female organism which breed all kinds of miserable feelings and which ordinary practice does not cure, are the very disorders that give way to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who are afflicted with similar troubles, after reading two such letters as the above, should be encouraged to try this wonderfully helpful remedy.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.
